Congratulations! You have completed all sixteen lessons and four quizzes of this discipleship series. But this isn't an end ... it is only a beginning. If you commit to regular study of the Bible on your own and with others now, you will continue to learn more about God and His plan for you throughout the rest of your life.

But don't forget the significance of the title of these lessons--Each One Teach One. If any generation of Christians since the first century neglected their commission to pass on their knowledge to others, the Christian Faith would no longer exist.

You are encouraged to now use these lessons to begin discipleship of at least one other person.
